

Civic Seminar 2014

April 15, 2014

University Capitol Centre

- 8:00 – 8:30 AM Registration/ Breakfast
- 8:30 – 9:15 AM Opening Session – Main Seminar Room UCC 2520D
- Introduction by Civic Ambassadors – Jake Kurczek and Bethany Welsh
 - Welcome - Professor Willard L. Boyd, UI President Emeritus
 - Remarks - Professor Linda Snetselaar, Associate Provost for Outreach and Engagement
 - Keynote Address - "The importance of community building in a fundamentally changing world"
Chuck Peters, President and Chief Executive Officer of The Gazette Company
- 9:15 – 9:30 AM Instructions for Breakout Sessions & Short Break
- 9:30 – 10:25 AM Breakout Session #1 – “Engaging with Public Engagement”
- Green – Executive Room (UCC 2390)
 - Blue – Conference Room B (UCC 2520B)
 - Yellow – Conference Room C (UCC 2520C)
 - Red – Seminar Room D (UCC 2520D)
- 10:25 – 10:35 AM Move to Breakout Session #2
- 10:35 – 11:30 AM Breakout Session #2 – “Considering Best Practices for Public Engagement”
- Green – Executive Room (UCC 2390)
 - Blue – Conference Room B (UCC 2520B)
 - Yellow – Conference Room C (UCC 2520C)
 - Red – Seminar Room D (UCC 2520D)
- 11:30 – 11:50 AM Closing Remarks and Next Steps – Main Seminar Room UCC 2520D
- Linda Snetselaar, Associate Provost for Outreach and Engagement

You are encouraged continue the conversation! Consider regrouping in the food court on the first level (downstairs) where you'll find seating areas and plenty of great choices for purchasing lunch.

The Civic Seminar planning team would like to thank everyone for attending today's event. The Civic Seminar would not have been possible without sponsorship from the Office of the Associate Provost for Outreach and Engagement, Iowa Campus Compact Civic Ambassadors, Starbucks, and Waterfront Hy-Vee. Breakfast food was catered from Culinary Starts a program of Shelter House Iowa City.